IN BRUGES

Academy and Tony Award winning writer-director Martin McDonagh's feature directorial debut stars Colin Farrell and Brendan Gleeson as a pair of hit men and Ralph Feinnes as their boss who forces them to cool their heels in the picture-postcard town of Bruges. "An endlessly surprising, very dark, human comedy, with a plot that cannot be foreseen but only relished." -Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times "Easily one of the best debut feature films in recent memory." -Claudia Puig, USA Today (R for strong bloody violence, pervasive language and some drug use. 107 min.)

Tue.	7/29		9:00
Wed.	7/30		7:00
Thu.	7/31	5:00	9:20

BEFORE the RAINS

Acclaimed Indian director Santosh Sivan's English language debut is set in 1930s southern India against the backdrop of a growing nationalist movement. An idealistic young man (Rahul Bose) finds himself torn between his ambitions for the future and his loyalty to the past when people in his village learn of an affair between his British boss and a village woman. "A lovely, lyrical film with perfect timing." -Rex Reed, New York Observer "Visually gorgeous" -John Anderson, Newsday "Touching and thought provoking." -Deepak Chopra (PG-13, 98 min.)

MONGOL

Russian filmmaker Sergei Bodrov (Prisoner of the Mountains) illuminates the life and legend of Genghis Khan in this artful historical epic. "The action sequences here are first-rate, the performances are uniformly excellent, the cinematography as good as I've seen in any film this year." -Richard Roeper, Ebert & Roeper "As a visual spectacle, it is all but overwhelming, putting to shame some of the recent historical epics from Hollywood." -Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times (R for sequences of bloody warfare, 126 min.)

Fri.	8/8		9:00
Sat.	8/9	6:50	9:30
Sun.	8/10	4:40	9:30

CONSTANTINE'S SWORD

A "Meet the Filmmaker" Special Event. Constantine's Sword is an astonishing exploration of the dark side of Christianity, following acclaimed author, former priest and Chautauqua lecturer James Carroll on a journey of remembrance and reckoning. Through a compelling personal narrative the film brings the history of religious intolerance to life, tracing it as a source of the fanaticism that threatens the world today. (Q&A with Oscar winning Filmmaker Oren Jacoby and/or Producer Betsy West after each showing.) (NR, 93 min)
