Truth

On the morning of September 9, 2004, veteran CBS News producer Mary Mapes (Cate Blanchett) believed she had every reason to feel proud of a broadcast journalism job well done. By the end of the day, Mapes, CBS News, and the venerable CBS News anchor Dan Rather (Robert Redford) would be under harsh scrutiny. "Mesmerizing, entirely because of Blanchett; this is one of those movie-star performances in which every detail, every gesture feels right." -Moira MacDonald, Seattle Times "Engrossing!" -Peter Keough, Boston Globe (R, 125m)

DADDY DON'T GO

A Meet The Filmmaker Special Event! Director/producer Emily Abt's new doc captures two years in the lives of four disadvantaged fathers in New York City as they fight to defy the odds against them. And the odds are real - men living in poverty are more than twice as likely to become absent fathers than their middle-class peers (U.S. Census Bureau). "Challenges skeptics and gives otherwise marginalized men the chance to be appreciated for loving, not forgetting about, their seeds." -Matt Barone, Tribeca Film (Emily will host the screening and discussion to follow. NR, 87m)
